MEET SOME OF OUR FACULTY

ENTREPRENEURSHIP

PETER JASCKIEWICZ holds the University Chair in Enduring Entrepreneurship, and conducts quantitative and qualitative research on entrepreneurship and family business. His current research focuses on antecedents of transgenerational entrepreneurship and corporate reputation in family and founder firms. Moreover, Peter researches organizational outcomes of entrepreneurial legacies, managerial pay dispersion, and family dynamics in these firms.

HEALTH SYSTEMS

SAMIA CHREIM holds the Ian Telfer Professorship in Health Organization Studies. She combines research expertise in the fields of business management and health care management, with specialization in qualitative research approaches. In both fields, her research focuses on the dynamics of change at different levels, on intraorganizational and interorganizational collaborations, and leadership.

FINANCE

SAMIR SAADI holds a PhD in Finance from Queen's University. He was a Visiting Scholar at Stern School of Business, New York University and a Visiting Researcher at INSEAD. His current research funded by the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada (SSHRC) focus on how social media influences corporate decisions and investors' behaviour.

OB/HR

JANE O'REILLY's research examines informal workplace interactions and relationships. Her main research areas are mistreatment and social sexual behaviours in organizations. Her work on third-party mistreatment is focused on how bystanders can help (and sometimes further harm) the targets of workplace bullying and harassment.

ACCOUNTING

SHUJUN DING our Telfer Excellence Fellow teaches both management and financial accounting. His main research interests include judgment and decision-making in accounting contexts, corporate governance, and accounting and finance issues in small business. His recent work has been published in peer-reviewed journals, such as the Journal of Accounting Research, the Journal of Accounting, Auditing and Finance, and the Journal of Business Ethics.
